

Hovering

by Jean Oh

November 20 – December 16, 2020

Opening Reception: November 20, 6-8pm
NARS Foundation, Project Space

NARS is pleased to present Jean Oh's solo exhibition, Hovering, a series of paintings which focus on the sensitive state of inescapable constant disturbance. A repetitive introduction of disturbance to the constant state of mind thus becomes the norm, changing the initial state itself to become the disturbance. This represents our reality that we are obligated to suffer from forcing ourselves to fit into the social norms. Her paintings act as a constant reminder and tremor of the instability by presenting minor disturbance through the absurdity of the off balanced composition with the various delicacies.

Jean Oh holds a BFA from MICA (Maryland Institute College of Art) and an MFA from Pratt Institute. Oh has been featured in Saatchi Art's Rising Stars Report 2019. She also has been selected as the winner of the Silver Award for AHL-T&W Foundation Contemporary Visual Art Awards. She has had solo exhibitions at the Gateway Gallery 1 in Baltimore, MA and the Steuben Gallery in Brooklyn, NY. Her work presented by numerous group shows in the USA: 2019 11th Annual Juried Art Show (Riverviews Artspace, Lynchburg, VA); 2018 Small Work 2018 (Trestle Gallery Brooklyn, NY); and Concept 2018 (CICA Museum, Gimpo, South Korea.)
