Opening Reception: Friday, February 28, 6-8 pm
NARS Foundation, Project Space

NARS Foundation is pleased to present 12.3m², an installation by Brooklyn based artist, Bonam Kim. For this site specific installation, Kim created 10,000 plaster cast pieces of the U.S. immigration stamp. The number of pieces was calculated in relation to the total area of the building that hosts this installation and, overall, covers 20% percent of the total space. This is also the percentage of immigrants currently denied entry to the U.S. every day.

Kim holds a bachelor's degree in Sculpture from Hongik University in Seoul, Korea and a mater's degree in Sculpture from Pratt Institute in Brooklyn, New York.
