

2019 Sunset Park Wide Open Spring Edition

June 7th & 8th

This first iteration of the Sunset Park Wide Open (Spring Edition) event, is co-presented by NARS Foundation, J&M Studios, BioBAT Art Space, Target Margin Theater, Tabla Rasa Gallery, Boccara Art, and Genspace. During the two day event, each organization invites the public to visit exhibitions, to meet artists, curators, and researchers from all over the world and to experience the artistic process and the diverse range of artistic mediums presented in the intimacy of both studio environments and institutional contexts.

Programming is varied and features exhibitions, events, performances, open studios, and artist talks. A detailed schedule of programming can be found at www.narsfoundation.org, as well as on partnering organization websites.

The New York Art Residency and Studios (NARS) Foundation is a 501(c)(3) not-for-profit arts organization committed to supporting artists and curators on an international level as well as engaging the local community in Brooklyn and the Greater New York area. NARS provides an array of creative support services and professional development opportunities for emerging and mid-career artists through short-term integrated residency programs, affordable long-term studio spaces, progressive exhibition programs, and engaging public programs. These services operate in conjunction with our education and community outreach initiatives. Our mission is to present diverse platforms on which to nurture creative inspiration and innovative cross-pollination of ideas. For further information, please contact us at www.narsfoundation.org / info@narsfoundation.org / 718-768-2765.

NARS programs are made possible in part through the generous support of Materials for the Arts and with public funds from ConEdison and the New York State Council of the Arts, administered by the Brooklyn Arts Council.
